

A young princess has a bird which she keeps trapped in a cage. One day, the bird escapes and she chases it round the castle and out into the garden. She manages to catch it but, realising that the bird wants to be free, she lets him go, and is rewarded when he comes back to visit her. This touching story about freedom is stylishly rendered in Lesley Barnes gorgeous, contemporary artwork and has a unique twist: lift-flaps throughout enable the reader to free the bird themselves. Also has 10 things to count on every spread.
