

iShine Journal: Value Identity Purpose

iShine is a comprehensive media group that produces moral, life changing content by Christian teens for children between the ages of 7-13, who are collectively identified as tweens. iShine equips tweens, their families, and people who work with children to illuminate their world and help them find their value, identity, and purpose in Christ. They are the producer of Disney-style sitcom series KNECT the #1 highest rated Christian tween television program in the world. They stage live events that tour the country designed specifically to reach the tween audience. iShine also develops top music artists for tweens, such as The Rubyz, Mission Six, and Rachel Chan producing the 24/7 online streaming iShine radio network. The iShine journal perfectly compliments the messages of value, identity and purpose shared across the iShine platform, helping young people process and express their personal journey with God and others.
