MEET THE KIDS FROM ROOM 402
Gracie Graves remembers the name of every kid she's taught in thirty years. And she's certainly not likely to forget the fourteen boys and fourteen girls who inhabit her classroom now. How could she, with kids like Joey Tuna, who ate sixteen Twinkies at the Halloween party, with disastrous results? Or Tillie Ferillo, who stuffed a pussy willow up her nose? Or Freddie Fay, who emptied the school with a noxious brew he mixed up for show-and-tell? Michael Paraskevass's lively portraits are the perfect complement to Betty Paraskevass's delightfully silly poems in this hilarious slice of school life from the celebrated mother-and-son team that created Junior Kroll and The Ferocious Beast.
